

Examples of comments from students of Topics in Labor Economics (Fall 2012, Summer, 2010), Principles of Macroeconomics (Spring, 2010), and Principles of Microeconomics (Fall, 2010)

“Great at explaining concepts”

“Good preparation, good slides, good readings, good problem sets, clear explanation”

“Very thorough slides with great context”

“Prof. Osea is a great instructor. He explains concepts well, adjusts his teaching methods to class, is helpful in office hours and is very nice to students. Great class and great prof”

“Favorite course of this semester”

“Has a lot of availability outside of class. He is very passionate about the subject and is very knowledgeable”

“Great guy” “Clear” “Tried very hard to make understand concepts”

“Nice guy. Really enthusiastic. Shows cool videos in class to stimulate topics.”

“The course gave a great understanding of the working of labor market and functions caused in it. It was very interesting and informative”

“It applies the concepts to our day-to-day lives”

“Good lecture notes, easy explanation”

“Very helpful and willing to meet with students to discuss material, approachable”

“Osea is clear, very polite and approachable. He always asks and makes sure everyone understand the concepts”

“Super-helpful during office hour, it’s good that he was available outside of class a lot”

“Osea explains macro concepts very well. He shows interest and tries to get us involved in discussion”

“He’s amazing, he’s always there. Hard worker. Best discussion instructor”

“He really understands the material and is able to explain it so everyone understands”

“Made material interesting, explained thoroughly”

“Great at explaining concepts”

“Very dynamic, interesting, engaging lectures”

“Osea is a great TA”